Propaganda

From the word 'propagate' meaning to spread information and ideas. Joseph Goebbels was in charge of persuading Germans to believe Nazi ideas. Key messages were repeated including

- blaming the Jews for problems
- criticising the Treaty of Versailles
- make Germany great again

Methods Newspapers - only showed Nazis doing good things. Negative sources about Jews. Newspapers were censored and shut down.
Mass rallies - huge parades and rallies. Special arenas were built that could hold half a million people. They had choirs, bands and listened to speeches. Hitler was an engaging public speaker that could whip up an audience into a frenzy.
Films - were controlled with Nazis shown in a good way and their 'enemies' in a bad way. Leni Riefenstahl filmed the Olympics and made other films.
Radio - cheap radios were used to put across Nazi messages with loudspeakers in the streets.
Books - were censored and book burning rallies burnt Jewish, Communist and other unapproved authors.

Terror

The police state was organised and used terror to keep people in control. All police forces were under the control of Himmler as Head of the SS. The SS - were originally Hitler's bodyguards and were the most feared organisation in the country. They included the Waffen SS and the Death's Head Units that ran the concentration and death camps. The regular police and law courts - ignored crimes committed by the Nazis and they had all the top jobs. New laws meant the death penalty could be given for telling an anti-Hitler joke, having sex with a Jew or listening to foreign radio. The Gestapo - the secret police. They spied on people they thought might be a threat tapping phones and opening mail. They could arrest, torture and imprison without a trial. They had a network of informers, encouraged children to inform on parents and teachers.

Rewards

The problem of unemployment was dealt with making many people happy. Beauty of Labour movement - improved working conditions. Strength Through Joy organised leisure activities including choirs, camps, cheap holidays and cinema tickets. Workers could save up for their own VW Beetle although nobody ever received one. The Mutterkreuz - reward for women who had 4 children - bronze, 6 - silver or 8 - gold. This was linked to the 100 mark marriage loan which you kept 250 marks for each child you had.

Resistance and opposition

Many Germans were uncomfortable with what the Nazis were doing and moaned or grumbled but even this could be dangerous. Some used passive resistance refusing to do as they were told. Others were more openly defiant such as youth groups including the Swing Movement, Edelweiss Pirates and the White Rose. The Kreisau Circle also tried to eliminate Hitler. They failed and were executed.
